FEZTIVAL OF TREES DRONE CLUB

John Montoya
Oriental Guide

Again it is the time to start planning for the Feztival of Trees Sponsors and your time to volunteer for shifts. Starting on the 21st of November thru November 29th all the trees will be on display.

I will be Chairing the event and Lady Shirley and I will need all your help. Call me at 719-251-4781 or email me at montoya4781@gmail.com to schedule your availability.

Thank you all so much.

Mark Giffin
Chief Rabban

While at Central States Shrine Association (CSSA), I attended the Drone competition. There were about 6 or 7 competitors in the obstacle course that was held inside a vacant warehouse. I wanted to gain some knowledge to get Al Kaly's Drone Club up and running. Here is some of the information that I came away with.

There is no requirements as far as which drone to purchase. However, the one brand that was recommended was the 'NEO 2 drone with Flymore. The cost on amazon is under $500. You can purchase drones cheaper than this one but this is recommended for beginners because it is constructed to keep working if you hit a wall or other objects.

I literally learned how to fly this drone in under 5 minutes. So if you are looking to learn how to fly a drone don't bother looking for classes because you can teach yourself.

Going forward, I need someone to step up and be the president of this club. We have sufficient interest from five Shriners to form this club. The goal is to get three or four Shriners to compete next year at CSSA Ceremonial in Branson, MO. I think we can hold our meetings inside the Colorado Springs Shrine Club which is large enough to fly inside. We can also use the parking lot to fly outside. Please contact me with any questions or to volunteer to head up this new exciting club for Al Kaly.

GET INVOLVED!

Mack Word
Chief Rabban

The months have flown by and much work has been accomplished. The cause of the Shrine is better known, but more work is to be completed before the end of the year. Many discussions about what the Shrine is have been had and many petitions have been distributed; but, many more must be given.

As has been discussed membership comes from our blue lodges. We must be active in our lodges. After all, this is where it all began. Masonry is the foundation of shrine growth and the foundation must be strengthened. As the foundation of Masonry is strengthened, so is the foundation of the Shrine. The work of so many Nobles before us must not be in vain. And as much as I hate to say it, things MUST change or we will have to close the doors. Have we not already closed the physical door of our buildings? Why? What has been done, or not done, to carry on the important work that we do? The children must not go without treatment and our purpose must not fail. But, we are on that downward slide. We must turn it around and now is the time to do just that.

So I continue the challenge. Don't look around and say what have you done? Look in the mirror and ask what have I done? Past Potentate - Great!! You are a vital source of knowledge and experience. We need you. New to the shrine - Great! Get involved. Let a member of the Divan know what you are interested in and what your talents are. Together, many hands make little work. One can not do it on his own. We must join together and form a working bond, encouraged by a common goal - getting the children the medical treatment they MUST have. With a common goal that WE MUST NOT LOSE SIGHT OF!, we can reach new heights and new accomplishments. It's not about the pomp and circumstance... it's about the kids. Today is the day to begin the change and move forward.

We must join together and form a working bond, encouraged by a common goal - getting the children the medical treatment they MUST have.

Shriners: Let's show up with our fezzes to greet the crowds!

Importance of Selecting Qualified Candidates for the Position of Oriental Guide

From the Office of the Imperial Recorder. When the members of a Shrine elect a Noble to the office of Oriental Guide, they are virtually starting that Noble through the Divan line on the assumption that he will prove qualified for any merit achievement to the high office of Potentate.

Hence, it's quite evident that the nominations for Oriental Guide should be based upon a thorough and accurate evaluation of character, ability, and interest.

A Noble can be a good fellow, a hard worker, and a loyal Shriner...and yet lack the basic qualifications which make a good Potentate. Unless a Noble is fully qualified for the job, he is unfair both to himself and to his temple in seeking the office or in permitting his fellow nobles to support and promote his candidacy.

The normal starting point of Shrine leadership is the office of Oriental Guide. The following checklist may prove helpful in evaluating potential candidates for the office of Oriental Guide. However, no thinking man would be so naive or presumptuous as to all the virtues, talents, and qualifications which are set forth in this checklist for advance evaluation of potential candidates by the voting members.

|------------------------------------|---|
| • Leadership | • Capable of building good public relations |
| • Executive ability | • Good habits and moral character |
| • Business sense | • Interest in Shrinedom |
| • Community standing and influence | • Ability to give and get cooperation |
| • Financially secure | • Diplomacy |
| • Free to donate ample time | |

Many temples have placed a definite limitation upon their progress as a result of hasty judgment in connection with nominations for the office of Oriental Guide. Every Noble is not fitted to meet the rigorous demands imposed upon Potentates.

So, let's be fair, honest, and wise in the all-important matter of electing to office only men who are eminently qualified for the job. We all know that with honor comes responsibility. And while there is high honor associated with a Divan office, the ensuing responsibilities entail a lot of time-consuming, energy-consuming WORK! Eternal vigilance must be wisely and thoughtfully exercised by the voting membership in order to perpetuate a high caliber of leadership!

FEATURED SHRINER NATHAN HAYNES

by Billie Nigro

Nathan was born in Lamar Colorado but moved to Ohio when he was young. He grew up in Marion, Ohio and graduated from Elgin High School. He's from a blended family with 2 step siblings, 2 half siblings, and 2 adopted siblings, for a total of 7 children plus his dad and stepmom. Not many grow up with such a large family. His father was a CNC (Computer Numerical Control) machinist, and his stepmother was a hair stylist. His mother and stepfather are entrepreneurs, owning multiple businesses and real estate.

Nathan work history is varied, each job different from the last. The first was at the Ridgway Hatchery in LaRue, Ohio, where he tended chickens and ducks, collected the eggs, and put them in incubators. After they hatched, they would package and ship them. They bailed a lot of straw. His second job was at a drag strip in Marion, Ohio. He lived a mile away and would work the concession stand and enter the numbers and times in the tower for the cars. He has loved drag racing ever since.

Nathan joined the Army in 2003, right out of high school. He was a 91WM6 (Combat Nurse), and was stationed at Fort Sam Houston in San Antonio, where he worked at Brooke Army Medical Center. He was injured in the Army and medically discharged.

Like his mother and stepfather, Nathan is an entrepreneur. He bought into his first business at the age of 28. It was a tree cutting/trimming company called "The Tree Guy". He never cut down a tree in his life before he bought into the company. He was self-taught in the tree industry as well as in business ownership. Within 3 years, his business went from zero income to grossing a million-dollar per year. After 4 years, Nathan studied Business Management at Marion Technical College, in Marion Ohio, but never finished his degree. He realized college was teaching him nothing he didn't already know.

His second business was a real estate holding company. They flipped, bought, sold, and rented properties. Nathan and his business partner in the tree business had a falling out and the partner bought Nathan's share. Nathan took that money to start his third business, a contracting company called "Standard Property Management" paying homage to John D. Rockefeller. He knew how to estimate, he knew the guys who could actually do the work, and, although he hated working general construction, he was confident he would find a niche in the field that he liked.

He found his niche when he got contracted to do some flooring. He fell in love with refinishing hardwood and eventually incorporated all types of flooring. So, Nathan created a business called Innovative Flooring Professionals. He moved from Ohio to Colorado, shutting down all the other businesses in Ohio. He bought "Steel City Hardwood Flooring", based out of Pueblo West, which he operates to this day. With a showroom, 10 employees, and a 6000 sq ft warehouse, they gross over a million a year with no plans of taking the foot off the pedal.

Nathan resides with his girlfriend, Kayla, in Pueblo West. She moved out to Colorado from Ohio with him. He says she has put up with his crazy life and has been his biggest supporter and #1 fan since they got together. This September will be 5 years. They live with her daughter, Ellie, who is 14 and is an amazing young girl. She is his stepdaughter, but he never says "step" – she is simply his daughter. He has no biological children. And yes, he is going to marry Kayla. They have just been so focused on business and getting established in Colorado, it is something they will do in the near future, when things calm down.

Nathan said they met on Facebook. They were messaging each other for months, and one day decided to meet. She has never left his side from that day on. They are both interested in the same things: music, sports, business.

When he saw her for the first time, he was absolutely stunned by her beauty. But looks aren't everything; her personality is just as beautiful. So, once he found her, he never let her go! I doubt he ever will!

Nathan's hobbies are as varied as his businesses. He is obsessed with golf and enjoys video games. He's a huge Denver Broncos fan – good thing since he's here in Colorado now! He's also a Michigan Wolverine college fan. He loves going to concerts and is a huge rock/heavy metal fan. But he listens to everything, including country music! That is a really rounded taste! He went fly fishing for the first time and had a great time. He loves to travel and eat at hole-in-the-wall restaurants (I do, too – you can find the best food there!) Ever since his second job in Marian, Ohio, he still has a love of drag racing. That's something that gets your adrenaline going! He also says he likes tattoos.

Nathan was first introduced to Masonry at a young age. One of his friend's dad was a Mason, and he was always intrigued. He filed a petition in Ohio but pulled it after he decided to move. After a year in Colorado, he went to a customer's house to do an estimate on his floors. He saw the masonic symbolism in the house, and he asked, "Are you a Mason?" His wife interjected and said, "He isn't just a Mason, he is like, THE Mason". Nathan laughed and they explained. That man, who he holds dear to his heart and is proud to call his brother in Masonry, is MWB Ralph Newby. They have been very close friends since then: Margaret tutors Ellie, and Nathan and Ralph were both in the Spring Ceremonial Class.

Nathan joined the Shrine more for the philanthropy than anything else. He wants to one day be able to donate large sums of money to Shriners Childrens. He and Kayla have a lot of fun at Shrine events.

Nathan's life has had many twists and turns. There has been tragedy and heartbreak, more than most people ever experienced in their lives. But he has persevered through it all. He says he is just plain stubborn. He refuses to let his past define his future. Along the way, he has been homeless and had many adversities, but instead of loathing and feeling sorry for himself, he uses it as fuel for the fire to become a better person, to make better choices, treat others better, and try to learn the most from those around him.

His favorite saying is a Bible passage – one that he has tattooed on him. Romans 7:18-25. It is kind of long, but it is literally how he feels. There was a time in his life when he was at war with himself. He thanks God for setting him free.

He has a very interesting story, if he says so himself. Sometimes he sits back and wonders how the heck he has experienced so much in his 41 years of life, and is still alive to talk about it. He is thankful. He is blessed. And he is beyond honored to be called a Mason and a Shriner.

Nathan is a fascinating individual. I am blessed to be able to tell his story. I fully understand what he is saying about wondering how I have survived the life I have lived and am still around to talk about it! I wonder how my parents survived raising me! Thank you, Nathan, for sharing your story with all of us!

"We Are The Class of 2000"

MEET THE SHRINERS CHILDREN'S 2026-2027 INTERNATIONAL
PATIENT AMBASSADORS

MEET MACIE
AND COLTON

Every year, two patients are chosen to represent Shriners Children's as our International Patient Ambassadors, giving voice to the thousands of children and teens who receive life-changing care at Shriners Children's. They speak from experience, and their stories powerfully demonstrate the impact of our healthcare system.

These young role models show how Shriners Children's patients overcome challenges and pursue their dreams — while reflecting Shriners Children's unique spirit, nurturing atmosphere and clinical excellence.

MACIE

Macie, 15, is a high school sophomore and a talented softball pitcher from Tampa, Florida. She has played the sport since she was 7 and has long dreamed she'd play her way onto a college team. Softball isn't just an activity for her — it's her passion and greatest joy.

So, when Macie, then 10, was diagnosed with idiopathic scoliosis, a curvature of the spine, she was worried. "When I first learned I had scoliosis, I was scared I wouldn't be able to play softball, or any sport, anymore," she remembers.

Doctors prescribed a nighttime brace, and Macie wore it faithfully, hoping it would keep her curve from progressing.

Despite being diligent about wearing her brace, Macie's curve worsened. A doctor recommended a surgical procedure that would limit her spinal mobility, making pitching difficult, if not impossible. But Macie and her mother had reservations.

Macie's mother, Michelle, a pediatric nurse, began searching for alternatives. That led her to Shriners Children's Philadelphia and spine surgeon Amer Samdani, M.D., who is a pioneer of vertebral body tethering (VBT). VBT uses a flexible, belt-like tether attached to individual vertebrae. As the child grows, the tether guides the spine into a straighter position — without sacrificing flexibility. The procedure is only possible for children who are still growing, and Macie was an ideal candidate.

In October 2023, Macie and her mother drove 17 hours from home in Tampa to Philadelphia for the surgery.

Just two months later, she was back on the mound.

"My coach started me in our first tournament of the season," she says. "I threw that first pitch and I knew this had worked. I think I struck out the first batter."

A year after surgery, a follow-up X-ray confirmed the transformation.

"It was a completely different picture," Macie says. "It showed me that my spine had completely changed — and that I'd never have to deal with this again."

In 2025, Macie was invited to throw out a ceremonial first pitch at the Shriners Children's Clearwater Invitational. She even got to meet the University of Alabama softball team. It was a dream moment for the young athlete.

As a Shriners Children's International Patient Ambassador, Macie speaks with genuine gratitude about her experience.

"I want to give back as an International Patient Ambassador because I don't think anything could ever repay Shriners Children's for what they did for me," she says.

"The Shriners are the best example of caring, giving people. It's amazing to see people with that much passion for helping children."

MACIE

Colton, 17, is a high school senior and multisport athlete with a competitor's heart. Told his prosthetic leg could limit his activities, Colton consistently proves otherwise.

When Colton's mom, Becky, was pregnant, the ultrasound showed that his legs were measuring different lengths and he had only four toes on his left foot. But it wasn't until Colton was born that they learned he had fibular hemimelia — the absence of the smaller of the two bones in the lower leg — along with a shorter leg, bowed tibia, malformed ankle and missing toe.

His grandfather's cousin, a Shriner, knew of Shriners Children's expertise in orthopedic conditions and advised the family to seek care at Shriners Children's St. Louis.

"We walked through those hospital doors and you could literally feel the warmth, the love and the caring before we even talked to anybody," Becky recalls.

At Shriners Children's St. Louis, orthopedic surgeon Perry Schoenecker, M.D., outlined two possible treatment paths. One involved a series of limb-lengthening surgeries beginning around age 8 or 9, together with ankle reconstruction — a long process that can take 5 to 10 years. The other was amputation at the ankle and then fitting the baby for a prosthesis.

The family chose amputation and they have never regretted that decision. Colton had his first surgery when he was 1 and received his first prosthesis shortly after that. He is currently on his tenth prosthetic.

To learn more about Shriners Children's, please scan the QR code or visit shrinerschildrens.org.

While his prosthetic makes him different from friends and classmates, Colton knows it also provides him opportunities. He is able to show that with diligence and a dream, anything is possible, no matter the hurdles. "I'm sticking out for a reason," he says.

An accomplished student-athlete, Colton has competed in wrestling, baseball, basketball and track and currently participates in football and golf for his high school. He plays both offensive and defensive line for his high school football team and played in two high school state golf tournaments. Colton has been a patient ambassador at the Kansas Shrine Bowl many times, even serving as a manager for the West team since 2024. His goal is to return to the field — this time as a player in 2027.

Colton lives in a small Kansas town surrounded by miles of wide open wheat fields. He loves the freedom of rural life, where everything he needs — school, the coffee shop, the golf course, the football field — is close and familiar. Whether raising and showing pigs as part of his youth agricultural project or tackling daily farm work alongside his grandpa, uncle and cousin, Colton is always up for the task.

Colton speaks about Shriners Children's with deep affection and loyalty and is grateful for the opportunity to help others as he was helped.

"My favorite part of being an International Patient Ambassador is being able to share how special Shriners Children's is," he said. "They're not just doctors and nurses; they're part of your family."

The Al Kaly Shrine General and Transportation Fund are in need of a financial boost.

The increasing cost of operating Al Kaly Temple and transporting kids to the hospital combined with decreasing membership has put a strain on the General Fund and Transportation Fund. Please remember both of these funds when donating.

Helping A Child Is Just A Phone Call Away

Determining whether a child is eligible for care at Shriners Children's is as simple as calling 800-237-5055 (toll free in the U.S.), or 800-361-7256 (in Canada) from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Eastern Standard Time, Monday through Friday. During the initial phone call, you will discuss the nature of the child's condition, age and location of residency with a patient referral coordinator. Based upon the information provided, you will be referred to a specific Shriners Children's location that can best care for the child. Additional information is available on shrinerschildrens.org.

Shriners Children's specializes in treating orthopedic conditions, burns, spinal cord injuries, and cleft lip and palate.

In Memoriam

As of: August 20, 2026

"Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am in a thousand winds that blow,
I am the softly falling snow.
I am the gentle showers of rain,
I am the fields of ripening grain.
I am in the morning hush,
I am in the graceful rush.
Of beautiful birds in circling flight,
I am the starshine of the night.
I am in the flowers that bloom,
I am in a quiet room.
I am in the birds that sing,
I am in each lovely thing.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there. I do not die.
