Reports from Clubs, Units, and Committees

Don Christian, Legion of Honor – Spaghetti Dinner, April 11, 2010 at 11:00am.

Doug Gabel, Tractor OV, March 7, Coal Creek Eureka Lodge at 3:00pm..

IS Bill Sheard, Pueblo Shrine Club breakfast to be held March 7. Also, the Mule Train breakfast held the 2nd Sunday of every month.

IS Bob Burr presented a check for $200 from Betty's cousin, Navy Captain Diane Bechtel. Ms. Bechtel has been contributing to the Children's Transportation Fund for a long time.

IS Steve Jordan asked for "Wow" attendance at the St. Patrick's Day parade on March 13. Line up is 11:00am with step off around 12:00pm. Deborah is in Albuquerque assisting with her father. He thanked all that offered their concerns over him and prayers for the family.

Swede Hanson told of the corned beef and cabbage at the CSSC following the St. Patrick's Day parade. Reservations are to be made by calling the CSSC.

Billy Swartz invited all to the CSSC OV on March 17, 2010.

Howard Magan informed us of the Grand Master's visit to the Pueblo lodges on March 20, 2010.

Ron Bowen stated that the Al Kaly Band Swinging Shriners will play at the Corned Beef and Cabbage dinner at the CSSC.

And, Brian Bate advised of monthly prospect dinners. Bring non Shriners to club and unit meetings. This is being favorably received and is a good tool for prospective members.

With no further business, the meeting adjourned at 2:15pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Bart Guthrie, P.P.
