Old Business: None

New Business:

1. Treasurer Gene Dobrzelecki gave a financial report. It was accepted
2. SLC Board of Governors. The Board of Governors informed us that Ill Bob Burr was completing his last three year term (total nine years) and at the end of the year he would appropriately receive emeritus status. They also advised us a replacement for Ill Sir Bob was needed. Ill Sir

Roger solicited applicants. He had packets of information and the application had to be turned in to him no later than May 22, 2013.

3. Temple Resolution. The recorder read a temple resolution from International requesting our permission to do a membership mailer for three insurance vendors: Nationwide, Travelers, and Liberty Mutual. Resolution passed.
4. 2104 Raffle Calendar. AR J. D. Potter moved that Al Kaly conduct a 2014 raffle calendar. It was seconded and favorably passed. J.D. then solicited lots of new photos for the calendar and said the price for a unit/club to purchase a page was the same price: Cover: $300 and monthly pages $250.
5. Ill Sir Bill Sheard presented a donation check in the amount of $250 from the Nomads.
6. Noble Doc Hathaway presented a $300 donation check for the transportation fund.
7. Ill Sir Dave Stevens gave an update on the circus activities for May 2013. The first circus was in Colorado Springs May 14, 2013. Ill Sir Roger then provided times for all circuses. The times are also located on the web calendar.
8. Noble Paul Thies promoted a Fin Twister event with the kick off May 15, 2013 at the CSSC.
9. Ill Sir Roger then promoted the Mule Train BBQ.
10. Noble Brian Bate had Vidalia onions for sale.

Awards

1. 25 and 50 year service awards were presented. Those honored were: 50 Years: Noble Jim Nunn and 25 Year honorees: Nobles Gerald Bates, Glenn French, Lyndon McDaniel, Marvin Narragon, and Richard Stienmier.
2. Medals, silver and gold stars, jewels of distinction were presented to deserving nobles. Their names will be published in the July 2013 Dust. Highlighting the awards: Ill Sir Tom Holmes was presented his Gold Membership Medallion and Ill Sir Bob Burr was presented a 75,000 point pin.

With no further business the meeting adjourned at 8:45pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Bart Guthrie, P.P.
